Sultan Supreme has proven to be an exceptional breeder. The calves we are getting from him are as good as any that we ever bred. His sire topped the Illinois Breeders' sale and was sold to go to the Argentine. He is a sure breeder and right in every way. Our reason for selling is that nearly all our cows are bred and our herd is too small for two bulls, and we wish to retain our senior herd bull, Fair Acres Victor by the Champion, Fair Acres Gloster.

Lot 15

GLENSIDE KING 360920

Bull

Sire—Clay Johnson 330890.

The milk inheritance of Clay Johnson has this advantage over all the other bulls of the "Clay" blood (excepting his half brother, Imperial Clay) in that he is closer to the fountain source, being a son of old Mamie Clay and a grandson of Joe Johnston and Kitty Clay 4th. As a producer of great milkers, uniformly and for generation after generation Mamie Clay has no equal in the breed so far as we know.

Count Avon is a bull of rare type and individual excellence. As a show bull he stood at the head or near the head of every ring in which he was shown at the leading fairs of 1910, 1911 and 1912, including grand championship at the 1912 International. Probably no bull in America has three sires of equal merit at the head of his pedigree.

Count Avon—Sired by Avondale; dam, imp. Lady Marjory, bred by J. Deane Willis, sired by Count Lavender (60545); next dam by Wm. of Orange (50694). Count Avon is a bull of rare type and individual excellence. As a show bull, he stood at the head, or near the head, of every ring in which he was shown at the leading fairs of 1910, 1911 and 1912—including grand championship at the 1912 International. Probably no bull in America has three sires of equal merit at the head of his pedigree.
